

Welcome to The Agency, where innovation meets planning!

We are at the forefront of transforming sales and marketing strategies through our revolutionary 3-step system, designed to seamlessly integrate advanced AI technology with industry experts. Our goal is to create customized marketing plans that drive revenue growth using our innovative programme ORIZON.

ORIZON leverages machine learning to analyze years of data, enabling it to generate real-time, accurate predictions. This first of its kind cutting-edge technology, accompanied by expert innovators, helps optimize your marketing budget to achieve optimal results.

Our Revolutionary 3-Step System

ORIZON

Step One: ORIZON

Our AI programme has been developed over the past three years. Here's how it works:

- Collect: Your company's historical data is collected and fed to ORIZON.
- Analyze: Evaluation and analysis of merged data is processed.
- Predict: ORIZON provides a tailored predicted sales and marketing plan.

Step Two: Think Tank

Next, we engage a group of Subject Matter Experts and your end users to enhance ORIZON's strategic predicted plan:

- End User Engagement: We onboard Subject Matter Experts and your targeted end users to collaborate in several interactive strategy sessions.
- Idea Adaptation: Our think tank approach exposes your product or service to subject matter experts, understands customer insight and experiences, and gathers valuable ideas and data from actual users to refine and adapt the proposed plan.

Step Three: Innovators

Finally, we bring together our experienced team of global innovators:

- Innovators: Utilizing insights collected from ORIZON proposed plan, we collaborate with our global innovators to fine-tune your Plan.
- Final Strategy: All parties involved, review, finalize and submit a comprehensive sales and marketing plan to achieve optimal results for your company.
